Councilmember Jones made the following statement:

MINUTES OF APRIL 4, 2023

“ Thomas Sowell said when you want to help people that you tell them the truth, when you want to help yourself you tell them what they want to hear. We had two proclamations this morning talking about sexual assault and how we stand against it, its funny how every time I talk about AltaPointe in this setting I get a phone call shortly thereafter with another abuse that has happened and that organization, same thing happened this past week, cannot continue to sit on this Council that allows an environment that creates the conditions for this abuse to continue, defends those actions, and then funds the organization where those actions exist that allows for the abuse of the most vulnerable among us and yet we sit here and do nothing. I’ve laid out facts numerous times of those abuses, I’ve gone to committee meeting, members on this Council have tried to shut down parents that have just tried to simply state the problems that they have. We have the ability to impact change, yet we refuse to do that as a City Council, as a County Commission, and as City leadership, we saw that just the end of this week. It’s absurd to sit in a relationship and you know that the individual in that relationship is abusive, yet you just ignore it. How many of us would have friends that, that hits his wife or breaks their children’s arms and say that’s okay, I’m still going to go out and fellowship with you and I’m going to let that go, I’m going to ignore it. That’s exactly what City leaders are doing when it comes to the issues I’ve discussed. I cannot change that, that’s been absolutely evidently clear, but I can refuse to sit here and be a party to it for these reasons and a few more that I will say at a later date. I’m resigning my position as City Councilman. I’m not resigning from service I’m just changing the positions from where I serve. I will not be making any public comment until further notice, thank you.”

Councilmember Carroll stated that he had a good meeting with the committee established to take a look at the MHDC ordinance on last Wednesday.
