Lovett, Sr., from Wilcox County, Alabama to Mobile. Eventually settling at the base of Plum Street, in what was, and continues to be, known as "the Bottom.” Reverend Lovett served as pastor of both Mt. Pleasant and Truevine Missionary Baptist Churches, two continuously prominent and active churches in the district and in our city, the latter of which he served as undershepherd for almost 40 years. Here in Mobile, Reverend and Mrs. Lovett went on to have 5 other children bringing the total number of offspring to 6, 5 boys and 1 girl, and the Lovett family has continued to be immersive in the Mobile community, being known for entrepreneurship and service both within the City and beyond.”

“Providing the whole of Plum Street, which is approximately 6 blocks long, with the Honorary Street Designation of Lovett Way will honor Reverend BM and Mrs. Jettie Lovett and all of the Lovetts that have come and produced and been part of the vibrancy of our city since 1895. It will serve as a reminder to immediate area and the city that the remnant of true service, born of love and sealed by faith, never dies but transcends, and that, above all, God will always make a way.
