NOTE: Councilmember Manzie stated for the record:

Any person, who attempted to sit in or engage in the meeting of the Mobile City Council while we were in the Auditorium, that did not have a mask on was either asked to put a mask on or they got the very same treatment. No one was singled out and no one was treated preferentially. We wore masks when we were in the Auditorium. The Mayor wore a mask, the Public Safety Director wore a mask and to be very frank with you, our previous speaker wore a mask up until he reached the microphone. Any other time prior to that, he wore a mask and so there is no preferential treatment. There is no singling out. We are all trying to make it through this pandemic until there is a vaccine available and we are able to return to some resemblance of normalcy. Until then everybody is going to have to be inconvenienced. There are restaurant owners who aren't able to have 100% occupancy. It has been an inconvenience to everybody. I have church on Sundays and can't hug my church members, can't have them come within 6 feet of me. That's totally abnormal. My brother works at Mobile County Transportation with the public school system and someone came to his job who had been around two (2) people who had caught the virus. For a whole week, he had to stay in a hotel and he is my source of help, so it has inconvenienced everybody. But nobody who wanted to wear the mask that would come up to the microphone was turned away from having their full five (5) minutes.

(e). An agreement signed by all persons requesting the vacation wherein they jointly and severally agree to indemnify and hold the City of Mobile, and its officials and employees, harmless of and from any costs, expenses, and attorney fees that may be incurred in connection with any litigation that may be brought by any person or entity challenging the (5). The City of Mobile reserves all of its rights and inherent and statutory police powers to re-open any street, alley or public way closed to vehicular or pedestrian traffic at any time.
